

Inside and Outside of Me

Portraits in Words

Tol • er • ance:

The ability to recognize and respect the beliefs or practices of others.

Tolerance begins with respecting yourself and recognizing the qualities that make you unique.

Students examined the work and words of four artist “heroes” who dared to be themselves and drew their creative strength from their own qualities and beliefs. We made artwork about our own unique inner qualities, goals and dreams.