

QUILTING WITH FRACTIONS AND SYMMETRY

There was a lot of math in our art this week.

We studied quilt designs and their origins, finding the simple geometric shapes in each nine-square block. We started with squares and cut them into equivalent fractions for rectangles, triangles and squares. After designing symmetrical borders, we developed a symmetrical design for the center.

Good work!